

Germany is Wunderbar Patch

Spangdahlem Girl Scouts Neighborhood
Patch Program

Daisies: Complete 2 starred items plus 3 other items.

Brownies: Complete all starred items plus 3 other items.

Juniors: Complete all starred items plus 4 other items.

Cadettes/Seniors: Complete all starred items plus 5 other items.

*Learn the Language: Learn important words and phrases like those listed below and practice with each other until you feel comfortable speaking so that you will be ready to use what you have learned.

Good Day, Thank You, Please, Goodbye, Emergency phrases, and Where is the restroom?

*Experience Germany: Get out and explore Germany. Take a trip, go to a museum, see a play, visit a historical site, visit a castle or take a tour. You may want to link other neighborhood patches like Trier City Walk to complete this requirement.

*A Taste of Germany: Visit a local restaurant and try a food that you have never eaten or find and prepare a typical German dish to serve at one of your troop meetings.

History of Germany: Make a timeline of important events in German history.

Shopping in Germany: Learn about the Euro, learn to convert dollars to Euro and purchase an item by yourself.

Customs of Germany: Research two or more German customs or holidays and learn how and why they are celebrated.

German Arts: Learn to do a German craft.

Traditional Games of Germany: Learn and play a traditional German game appropriate for your age level.

Volksmarching in Germany: Research the history of Volksmarching and participate in at least one Volksmarch.

Scouting in Germany: What are the Girl Scouts called in Germany? Find examples of their uniform, pin and promise. What kinds of activities do they do? How does Scouting in Germany differ from Scouting in the United States? Learn more about World Association of Girl Guides/Girl Scouts (WAGGGS).

Share Your Knowledge About Germany: Share what you have learned! Compile a coloring book, a storybook, picture book or a scrapbook on Germany and share it with a group of other Girl Scouts.